Three Point & Free Throw Contests

Rules of Competition:

1. Boys and girls divisions will be available for elementary school (grades 4-5), middle school (grades 6-8), and high school (grades 9-12). Middle school and high school participants may enter in the 3-point contest, free throw competition or both. Elementary school participants may enter the free throw contest. Both a male and female champion shall be determined in each division.
2. Basketballs will be provided.
3. Check in at the contest table to purchase your ticket. The fee is $5.00 per contest. Registration will begin 15 minutes prior to the designated start time.
4. At the start of the competition, go to the designated basket and give your ticket to the monitor and work into the rotation.

Free Throw Contest:

1. Participants will shoot ten (10) consecutive shots.
2. The next shooter in line rebounds for the current shooter.
3. The top 3 scores in each division will advance to the finals.
4. In the finals, the same format will be used.
5. High score determines the winner in each division.
6. If a playoff is necessary there will be a sudden death playoff.

3 Point Contest:

1. There will be three (3) designated spots on the court and participants will take three (3) shots from each spot.
2. The next shooter in line rebounds for the current shooter.
3. The top 3 scores in each division will advance to the finals.
4. In the finals, the same format will be used.
5. High score determines the winner in each division.
6. If a playoff is necessary there will be a sudden death playoff. Each shooter may determine his/her spot.
